Description: A teenage girl disappears from a beach town at the height of summer. Two months later a massive police search has failed to find her. And then eleven-year-old Billy Wheatley steps in to solve the case. Billy's something of a child prodigy - or at least he thinks he is. He's also highly motivated, with his own reasons to want the police and coastguard...

Review: This is the first book I have read by this Author. It is so good that I will now read his other two. A dorky little kid named Billy tells the story. He and his Dad moved to this little island town when he was a toddler after his Mom died. His dad is The maintenance worker for rental cottages. Billy hopes to be a scientist and even does some rudimentary...
